FIREWORKS DISPLAY TO MARK JULY 4 CELEBRATION AT MARCHBANKS PARK

A big, old-fashioned display of fireworks will be presented at Marchbank Park the night of July Fourth, with members of the Volunteer Fire Department, under Chief Elmer Kennedy, working out details of the program after being authorized by the Daly City Council to take charge of the event.

Mines, bombs, rockets and flares will be set off from the middle level of the park, with the audience confined to the baseball field on the lower level.

The fireworks display will commence at 8 p.m.

The first step in the council's program fo street decoration will coincide with the Independence Day celebration, and flags and bunting will be hung along Mission street for the occasion.

The display will mark the first fireworks seen in Daly City for many years, since sale of fireworks to the public has become illegal. The council decided on the display to give children and grown-ups an opportunity to celebrate Independence Day in the American tradition.

A large crowd is expected to witness the display, and groups were making plans to get to the ballpark early to secure vantage points for the program.

Details from the local American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts have made plans to present official color groups at the program.

COUNCIL PASSES NEW ORDINANCES -- HANDLES MANY OTHER MATTERS

Of importance at the meeting of the city council last Monday evening was the passing of Zoning Ordinance No. 294 of the City of Daly City, the passing of Ordinance No. 293, which creates the office of city manager and defines his powers and duties, the adoption of the budget for the fiscal year 1949-50, and the passage of eight resolutions.

The meeting was called to order at 8:15 by Mayor James P. Green. Councilmen Bertetta, Gaggero, and Mooney, City Clerk B. C. Ross, City Engineer Ed Smith, City Attorney Frank Blum were present. Councilman Battye was absent.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read.

A petition signed by 10 property owners of Garden Village was read asking that curbs be removed from the gateway to the village stating that the installation of same was done without warning and permission. Such action, the petition stated further, would decrease property value, decrease methods of egress and ingress and create a fire hazard thereby increasing the fire rates. Councilman Gaggero asked that the petition be forwarded to the Joint Highway Commission No. 10 and a report on their findings be sent to the city.

Under communications a letter from the Girl Scouts of America was read thanking the city for its donation to the campership fund of Daly City. The letter was ordered filed.

The city council by unanimous vote has placed Allen Hertel, chief clerk of the water works collection department on a permanent basis, due to his having completed his six months probation period.

The resignation of George Hopman from the Daly City Police Department to accept the position of building inspector was unanimously accepted by the city council.

A communication from the San Mateo county board of supervisors advising their decision not to improve White street at this time was referred to the mayor.

A letter signed by Cliff J. Pettigrew and James Thomas of Daly City Garbage was read stating that towing work was not being properly distributed according to an order issued recently. The matter was referred to Chief of Police W. W. Sunderland.

In regard to the new zoning ordinance a letter was received from H. H. Smith inquiring why his property located at the site of the old quarry which was formerly in the industrial zone was left "unclassified."

According to a statement made by the mayor no protest was made at the time of hearing and not knowing under which classification to place same it was left "unclassified." (However, if the occasion arises this property can be reclassified.)

Fire Levels San Bruno Supermart

Cause of the $600,000 fire which destroyed San Bruno's huge supermarket, Lucky Stores Inc., early yesterday morning was not yet determined as the Record went to press today.

The spectacular four-alarm blaze, second in the county in five weeks, started at about 5 a.m. in a back storeroom near an incinerator which had been used to burn trash an hour earlier. Three night clerks were stocking shelves in the building at that time. When they noticed the flames they fled the building and sounded the alarm that brought firemen and equipment from San Bruno, Millbrae, Lomita Park, South San Francisco, and Daly City.

The three clerks slammed the front door as they left and thus closed off the only easy way for firemen to get into the building. Both front and back doors of the building were electrically controlled and steel-reinforced.

Flames and smoke belched forth from the arched roof of the 25,000-square-foot building by the time firemen could chop through the plate glass windows. A dense cloud of black smoke rose to a height of 1,000 feet and was visible for miles across the peninsula.

By 7 a.m. the roof had caved in, leaving only the reinforced concrete walls and the tall yellow and green front tower with its "Lucky" sign standing.

The scene was crowded with spectators, many of them in night clothes.

Forrest J. T. May, president of Lucky Stores Inc., announced today that plans are underway to reopen the store as soon as possible.

WHAT'S DOING ON SCHOOL STREET?

Bowling Alleys To Be Built In Fall

Papers have been filed at Sacramento for the incorporation of Broadmoor Bowl, a new enterprise formed by local business men.

The corporation plans to build bowling alleys on School street, between Werner and Mateo, according to an informant. They plan to pour foundations in the early fall.

Those interested in the new enterprise include Dan Dolan of the Dolan Building Supply company and Guido Brocchini of Westlake Furniture. Names of other business men who are in on the project have not been revealed as yet.

The Brunswick-Balke-Collender company of San Francisco is expected to provide the bowling equipment, including alleys. Total cost is not yet known.

Applications for a building permit and a business license have not yet been made. Dolan said this week that he will release additional information soon.

Colma P.T.A. Writes Finis To Year's Work

Necessary business for the year was completed June 14 by the Colma P. T. A. executive board when they met at 1 p. m. in the Colma Community Center.

President Hilda Dennis wishes to thank all members for their cooperation during the past term and to wish them a happy vacation.

Plan To Widen Street To Come Up

Many business men and city officials believe that Daly City would benefit if School street were widened, the Record learned today.

Previous efforts toward widening the street by moving the southern curbing back about 10 feet have fallen through due to lack of interest, but the question will again reach the city council some time in July, according to a statement recently made.

It was pointed out that with the recent installation of traffic signals at the intersection of School street and Junipero Serra boulevard, the southern curbing was placed somewhat south of the curbing farther up School street.

"Does this mean that provision has been made for eventual widening of the street?" a business man asked.

As yet, no one has come up with the answer. It will depend first on whether the residents and business people located on the street want it widened.

The city may put up the funds for curbing and street work if the project goes through, but does not have the money to buy the property for the purpose, City Hall sources said. The property would probably have to be donated to the city by the owners, they added.

Widening of School street would result in a main thoroughfare between Mission street and Broadmoor Village and would probably create a new business section along School street.

VEHICLE DAY RACE IS MAIN EVENT IN THE RECREATION PROGRAM

A parade of bicycles, scooters coaster wagons, home-made vehicles and tricycles will precede the "Vehicle Day Race," the main event in next week's recreation program.

The vehicles entered in the race will be judged for decorations as well as speed. Home-made vehicles will be judged for the best construction and their uniqueness.

The parade is scheduled to start at 9:30 a. m. Friday, July 8 with the races following.

A banner will be awarded to the playground scoring the most points while ribbons will be given to the individuals scoring first second and third in each event. First place winners will receive 5 points, second placers 3 points and third placers, 1 point.

Officials will include E. Cassilagio, M. Falbo, B. Clement, G Smith, W. Root, E. Rose, E. Eichner and K. Schreiber.

The event will be held at the high school track.

The roller skating party, originally scheduled for July 6, has been postponed until July 16. Movies for that week, usually held on Monday will be held Wednesday, July 6.

The Thornton Beach Party was well attended with 140 children hiking out and back. Five directors accompanied them. They were Glen Smith from Marchbank, in charge of refreshments; Mary Falbo from the high school, in charge of games; Beverly Clement from Jefferson, also helping with the games; Herb Osuna of Lincoln and Audrey Fornoy of Crocker.

Sunshine came through as ordered and the children were able to enjoy wading and sightseeing.

The first week of the playground activities at Marchbank Park was a busy one with Glen Smith in charge. A ping pong tournament was held with director Smith winning over Carl Gruenwald in the final game. Participating in the tournament were Jerry Gruenwald, John Spinette, George Schreiber, Kathleen Schreiber, Joan Cahput, LaLa Huntsman, Bob Galagher and Jackie Berady.

The playground was defeated in a softball game with Lincoln 12 to 10. The Marchbank team was leading 10 to 2 in the early innings when Lincoln finally began to click. They forged ahead with 5 runs in the 6th inning. Another game is scheduled for Friday. Playing on the Marchbank team are Hopman, C. Gruenwald, J. Gruenwald, Galindo, Petiti, Smith, L. Huntsman, B. Huntsman and Kim Kleese.

THE FOURTH — GIVE IT MEANING

In observing this Fourth of July why not resolve to be a better citizen during the coming year, to do all you can to improve your home and your community, to take an active part in civic affairs, to speak out in support of what you sincerely feel is right, to be equally outspoken against what you believe is wrong, to be more tolerant toward those of differing political and religious views and of different nationalities and races, to be more self-reliant, to resist temptation to let others do your thinking for you, to keep informed on vital issues, to vote at every election, to work hard, to spend your money wisely and to save some, and to insist that your local, state and federal governments practice economy?

This may not be a spectacular way to observe the Fourth, but let us not forget that we have a solemn obligation to help preserve this nation which was born in travail 173 years ago. And we can help preserve it more through establishing and maintaining high standards of citizenship than we can through oratory and fireworks, parades and picnics, however appropriate these may be.

SENSE AND SAFETY

Safety is largely a matter of common sense. That applies on the Fourth of July week end as well as at any other time. Common sense leads one to drive at a reasonable speed, to observe traffic signals, avoid drowsiness at the wheel, keep the car in good mechanical condition, and not to mix even ONE drink with driving. Common sense also prevents one from swimming alone, or attempting to swim farther than he is reasonably capable of doing, or from going into the water immediately after a heavy meal.

There needn't be any 300 or 400 accidental deaths over this week end. The anticipated toll can be cut virtually to the vanishing point through the exercise of due precautions by all. If a trip is worth making, then it's worth a little extra time and care to see that you and your family — and the other fellow too — get a chance to enjoy it and to take other trips in the future.

POST OFFICE PLUMS

Can it be that the traditional post office plums for the party faithful — no less than 21,000 first, second and third class postmasterships — are to be removed entirely from the realm of politics? President Truman has asked Congress to comply with the recommendation of the Hoover Commission which asked that this be done. Under the new set up, if approved by Congress (and that will be a hard one for Congress to swallow since individual lawmakers have a hand in the appointments) all appointments will be made by the Postmaster General.

Of course, until Truman named Jesse Donaldson as Postmaster General every post office head was an out-and-out politician, sometimes doubling as national party chairman. With that arrangement the appointments would be right back in politics. However, it remains to be seen, first, if Congress will go along with the new proposal and, second, if it does, whether the congressmen can refrain from putting the heat on the Postmaster General, who at present is not a politician, to favor certain people. Politics and the post office have lived together so long the parting won't be easy.

Sunday Baseball

COLMA BOYS' TEAMS BOTH TAKE WINS

Colma Boys' Club seniors went on to another smashing victory Sunday, whipping the Marty Gary team at Marchbank 15 to 3.

The local club racked up 52 hits and 3 errors against the opposition's 7 hits, no errors. Marty Gary's three lone runs were scored in the beginning of the game on the boys' club's errors.

They were not allowed to score again after Pitcher Dave Ottonello of the locals really got warmed up. Ottonello pitched for the full nine innings.

On the previous Sunday Ottonello had pitched a shut-out game against Corte Madera, 7 to 0. The game lasted only seven innings.

Next Sunday, July 3, the boys' club seniors will play Half Moon Bay at Half Moon Bay. The game will start at 1:30 p. m. Program for the day includes a picnic after the game for the local boys and their girl friends.

The boys' club juniors also played a spectacular game last Sunday afternoon on the Jefferson Union high school field.

They completely over-ran Mission Inn, 24 to 0.

Pitcher Henry Morgan allowed the Mission Inn nine only two hits during the game.

There will be no league game for the juniors next Sunday, but there may be a practice game, Sponsor Joe Sarto announced this week. If the practice game is played, it will start at noon on the Jefferson Union high school field.

American Legion juniors lost again last Sunday, this time to the Redwood City juniors, 13 to 3. The game was played at Marchbank Park.

Next Sunday at noon the juniors—who are sponsored, by the way, by American Legion Post No. 410 here in Daly City—will play the Palo Alto legion team at Marchbank.

S.P. Announces Big Orders For Diesel Engines

Southern Pacific announced today that orders have been placed for 67 diesel locomotives of various types, at a cost of more than $23,000,000, in furtherance of its extensive improvement program.

In making the announcement, A. T. Mercier, president of the railroad, said the new orders will raise to approximately $241,000,000 the company's postwar expenditures for new rolling stock, nearly $90,000,000 being for 263 diesel locomotives.

Deliveries of the newly ordered diesel locomotives are scheduled to start in October of this year, and when the current order is completed in June, 1950, Southern Pacific will have a total of 402 diesel locomotives of various types in operation on its lines, Mercier said.

Of 196 diesel locomotives previously ordered since V-J Day, the railroad had received 153 by midjune, of which number 54 are of 6,000 horsepower for main line freight and passenger service. Remaining to be delivered on previous orders are 26 freight diesels and eight passenger diesels, mostly of 6,000 horsepower. The company's present fleet of 238 diesel switchers is one of the largest of its kind in the country, the railroad president pointed out.

Included among the 67 diesels just ordered will be 28 of 6,000 horsepower, each, for main line freight service; 17 road switch locomotives, each 1,500 horsepower; and 22 switchers, each 1,000 horsepower. The company also is acquiring an additional passenger diesel unit.

BANKER'S HOURS AREN'T SO HOT—When John H. Parker, of Conway, Mass., gets through with a tough day of wrestling freight, left, for the Boston and Maine Railroad, he takes over his duties, right, as president of the Conway Savings Bank. Parker found that his salary as a bank official was inadequate to support his family of four, so he now puts in 48 hours a week as a freight handler, tending to his banking duties nights and Sundays.

The happiest homes on earth are those that are blessed with children. Children impart a warmth and an atmosphere of living to a home that lends enchantment to even the humblest dwelling.

The happiest people on earth are those parents who lavish their affections upon their children and endeavor to rear them in such manner that they will become happy and useful members of society.

Parenthood carries with it serious responsibilities which no parent can afford to shirk or ignore. Child delinquency springs mainly from parental neglect and the lack of proper home training.

The first duty of a parent is to instill in his child's mind the principles of right living and the spiritual background of human life. He must teach the child how to apply these principles in his daily life.

The Church stands ready to counsel and guide parents in meeting the grave responsibilities of

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

BIBLE COMMENT
FOR JUNE 26

Jesus Lives, And Is Still Leading On

IF one thinks of the earthly life of Jesus as lived in its Palestinian homeland, the Resurrection was its triumphant climax. It was not only the victory over death, but also the victory over the enemies who had sought to destroy Him. It was the triumph of love and goodness over hate and evil. It was the vindication of all that the Master had said, and of all that He had claimed to be. In that sense it was a glorious triumph and climax.

But for the world at large into which Jesus had come—"For this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world" (John 18: 37)—it was not a climax, but a beginning.

The evil that Jesus fought, and that crucified Him, is still abroad in the world, seeking to destroy His teaching, setting up other standards, of selfishness, and worldly power, and violence, caring nothing for justice, and mercy, and right. So great is this evil, so apparently overwhelming and successful, as in the violence of war, that it is easy foolishly to underestimate the power of good, the forces of righteousness, and the strength of Christian progress toward what may still be a far-off goal.

But the power and impulse of Christianity are not in the past. Jesus lives, and is still leading on.

We sing in our prayer, "Jesus Still Leads On" and that prayer has its answer before it is spoken, for the surest, truest, most hopeful thing in all the world is that Jesus is still leading on. And in a world where there is so much of evil, it is good to know that so many are sincerely and devoutly following in His footsteps.

Boy, 14, Makes Telescope

BY ROY L. WARREN

FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD Lyle B. Huggett, Jr., worked on a "chunk of glass" for a year before it was ready to enter the Youth Talent Exposition held at Battle Creek, Mich.

The "chunk of glass" went into a six-inch reflector telescope as the circular mirror and there was a lot of painstaking work before the project was completed.

Lyle Huggett

The telescope, when completed, was not just a casual toy. This keen-eyed young man was a participating member in the Battle Creek Amateur Astronomy club. After completion of the instrument, Lyle had the means of examining the universe from his own back yard.

Large, scientifically constructed telescopes are expensive to buy. They may be built at home for much less in terms of money. But they are costly in spare time, muck, and elbow grease.

• • •

TO make his reflector Lyle used a thick, molded disc of special glass which he converted into a highly polished mirror with a surface curved just so. It reflects the light from the stars back to an eyepiece and concentrates the rays so they will be in focus at exactly the right distance. . . .

A disc of plate glass with a convex-curved surface was the "tool" used to put the curve in the reflector. To do that job Lyle used seven different grades of abrasive granules and powder, black pitch and some jeweler's rouge.

Lyle mounted his plate-glass tool on a small table. He started by pouring some of the abrasive on it. Then the reflector glass was placed on top and the work began. He rubbed the reflector back and forth over the sharp abrasive, hollowing out the bottom surface of the reflector. As he rubbed the top piece of glass over the other he had to revolve it one way and move himself around the table in the opposite direction. That prevented any uneven wear on either the tool or the reflector.

If that makes your back ache, consider the fact that this is only the start. Next comes finer and finer abrasives to smooth out the rough grindings. Then there's the polishing, with pitch poured over the tool and a paste of jeweler's rouge applied to the reflector. More rubbing. Then checking against a template to see how far off the curve is and more rubbing.

Controls On Time-Buys End Today—But Dealer Policies Won't Change

As far as the government is concerned, you can buy a new car for two-bits down and a dollar a month, starting Friday — but try and do it.

Regulation W, as the government's wartime and postwar controls over nstallment buying are known, will be allowed to quietly die on schedule June 30.

A Senate banking subcommittee had held hearings on possible extension of the controls, but decided to do nothing about it.

However, lack of government controls will not greatly affect local installment buying practices. Most retailers in Daly City, who were interviewed by the Record, said that there would be little change in their requirements for down payments, but that they may grant purchasers more time to pay off.

Bank rgeulations, in some cases tighter than Regulation W, will continue to govern most installment buying — except at stores with plenty of capital who can do their own financing.

Regulation W, which passes into oblivion tomorrow, requires one-third down payment on automobiles, 10 per cent down on appliances and furniture, and no more than two years to pay.

Our Firemen Went To San Bruno Too, Found The Place Crowded

Daly City's volunteer firemen rushed out to the Lucky supermarket fire early Wednesday morning on a call from Councilman Fred Bertetta, but found upon arriving at the scene of the blaze that the place was already crowded with firemen — who had their own troubles trying to get into the electrically-locked building.

Bertetta and his family started early that morning on a vacation trip to Yosemite. When they passed San Bruno's conflagration, Bertetta got out of the car and telephoned Battalion Chief Lawrence Kennedy.

Chief Kennedy, Captain George Ford, and Captain Fred Mather, together with some seven members of the department, rushed to San Bruno with fire-fighting equipment, but came right back home when they found they weren't needed.

Where's the Old-Fashioned Fourth?

What ever happened to that good, old-time holiday when we used to watch the brightly uniformed band stride up Main Street playing a Sousa march, with the red-faced tuba player bringing up the rear? What ever became of those baseball games they used to play under the blazing sun, with a keg of beer on third base as standard equipment? Why don't we hear those speeches any more —those stirring orations sonorously proclaiming "the glory that is America"—before a straw-hatted crowd, while the kids played tag and drank too much lemonade? And the fireworks that used to produce a chorus of "a-a-ah's"—they, too, have paled. For the Fourth of July parades and ball games can be seen on television; an automobile radio gives you a choice of oratory as you speed toward a cool resort. Skyrockets are insignificant compared to a war movie. No, the "Glorious Fourth" just ain't what it used to be.

A. J. Bodien Returns From Fishing Trip— Total Catch: None

A. J. Bodien, water department head, spent every day last week fishing on Petaluma Creek in Marin county where he has a small cottage. The result—no fish.

The entire staff at the city hall was disappointed when they heard the news Monday morning. Almost everyone had figured to have striped bass for dinner that night.

They remembered back to September, 1946, when Bodien and Hugh Smith Jr. took a week off and went fishing at the same place. When the fishermen came back they had 90 king-size striped bass. Friends of Bodien and Smith had fish dinners for days; even the smallest bass was large enough for a couple of meals for an average family.

One of the largest of the catch was given to the Eagles, who raffled it off at one of their meetings.

Back at his desk Monday, Bodien observed, "Well, sometimes the fishing is good there and sometimes it isn't."

Then he started in on the work that had piled up during the week.

Gen. Pershing PTA Picnic Was Success

The General Pershing P. T. A. picnic held at San Mateo Park was pronounced a success by those who attended. The number was small but those who were there made up for it in enthusiasm. Mrs. John Eason planned many games and provided many prizes so that each child received a gift.

The picnic wound up the P. T. A.'s participation in school affairs for the summer vacation.

Tests Of B-36 Bombers Vs. Fighter Planes Not To Be Made Public Says Anderson

The results of any tests to determine the vulnerability of the B-36 bomber from attack by the best fighter planes of the Army and Navy air forces will not be made public, according to a letter received by Congressman Jack Z. Anderson from Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson.

Fearing that the much publicized simulated combat between the big Air Force bomber and selected Navy and Army jet fighters would become property of a potential enemy, Anderson asked the Defense Secretary to treat as "classified information" the capabilities of the B-36 as well as its possible vulnerability to attack.

Anderson said he had talked with Chairman Carl Vinson of the House Armed Services Committee in regard to the secrecy of the test results.

The letter from Secretary Johnson assured Anderson that the Joint Chiefs of Staff had expressed "almost identical views," and that he had taken the matter up with the Policy group of the Armed Services committee.

Anderson served on the Naval Affairs committee throughout the war, and since merger of national defense has been a ranking member of the Armed Services committee of the House.

"Biggest & Best" Contest Slated At Calif. State Fair

A contest with latitude, longitude and magnitude, and one which will permit Californians to enter their "biggest and best" in categories of their own choosing, is off to a running start, the State Fair reported at Sacramento today.

The Fair announced that contestants may enter their "biggest and best" of anything in the contest which will be decided on Friday, September 2, at the Open Air Theater on the Fair grounds.

One contestant informed Fair officials he wanted to enter his nose in competition. He described his facial organ as "a horn of plenty which makes the schnozes of Jimmy Durante and Cyrano de Bergerac seem like mere pygmy protuberances."

If the owner of this unique nose shows up, it will be judged along with the man with the longest beard, the largest family, the oldest man and woman, the tallest twins and the "biggest and best" brought to the Fair by scores of others.

The field is wide open for contestants. All they have to do is write to "Biggest and Best" at the California State Fair, P. O. Box 2036, Sacramento, California, and explain just what they are entering in competition.

Contestants may wish to enter their largest vegetables, their biggest watermelons, their most massive pies or anything else which they believe is superlative in California.

Druid Members Hold Convention At Ukiah

Mrs. Grace Hill was elected grand treasurer of the Grand Circle of California, U.A.O.D., at the convention held last week in Ukiah.

Among the members of Hillcrest Circle No. 143, U.A.O.D., attending were Lillian Felch, Agnes Prescott, Martha Wegner, Mae Baker, Mary Crayon, Audrey Code, Winifred Evans, Hazel Keagle, Clara Poket and Florence Young.

The convention will be held at Santa Maria next year.

Driver Education Courses Scheduled

To qualify teachers as instructors in driver education under the recently enacted state law making this subject compulsory in high schools, summer courses are being offered by seven northern California colleges, reports the California State Automobile Association.

The courses will feature classroom instruction in traffic safety, but several colleges will include behind-the-wheel driver training using dual control cars.

Amos E. Neyhart, consultant on road training for the American Automobile Association, Washington, D. C., will be in California in August to assist in some of the programs. Text and instruction material will be provided for many of the courses by the California State Automobile Association.

The schedule of summer driver education courses for high school teachers follows: San Jose State College, July 5 to August 12; Sacramento State College, July 18 to July 29; Fresno State College, July 25 to July 29; University of California, Berkeley, August 8 to August 12; University of California, Extension Division, in San Francisco, August 22 to August 26.

OLDEST PUBLIC BUILDING

The oldest public building in the United States is located at Santa Fe in New Mexico, reports the National Automobile Club. Constructed in 1610, it served as capitol of the Spanish provincial government that then ruled this vast southwestern territory.

Luncheon with Wendy Warren

I guess I'm just lazy when it comes to luncheon interviews. I like the ones close to CBS, so I can leave after my "Wendy Warren and the News" broadcast at 12:15, and be at the restaurant in a matter of minutes. Today I took vivacious Betty Winkler, star of CBS's "Rosemary", to Louis and Armand's, which is directly across from CBS. But I'm beginning to run out of close ones . . . maybe I should save a few for a rainy day.

For a small restaurant, Louis and Armand's is almost "plushy". We took a table right in the middle, where we could scan the predominantly radio crowd, and spotted a lot of friends. The food is excellent, with a strong emphasis on seafoods, and a superb chef's salad which was what we both ordered.

Betty Winkler

Betty Winkler, as you probably know, has the rare good fortune to be part of a husband-and-wife team . . . on a daytime serial! Betty first met her husband, George Keane, when he auditioned for, and landed, the part of Bill Roberts on "Rosemary". It wasn't too long before wedding bells rang on the program for Rosemary and Bill . . . but the courtship must have been mighty realistic, because Betty and George were married in real life soon afterwards!

Betty was born in Berwick, Pennsylvania, and a few years later her family moved to Akron, Ohio, where 4-year-old Betty first showed her histrionic talent in a blackface song routine at a local entertainment. Along with her first year of kindergarten, Betty plunged right into dramatic lessons and piano instruction. With such an early start, it is not surprising that when she graduated from Hyde Park High School in Chicago, Betty was engaged as a member of the Cleveland Playhouse Repertory Company, and played leads with the troupe for a year in Akron and surrounding cities.

Then, about 1937, came radio, and Betty Winkler started right out playing leads in such programs as "The Trial of Vivian Ware", "Girl Alone", "Abie's Irish Rose", and now, "Rosemary".

In addition to their radio work, Betty and George belong to Actors' Studio, a select experimental acting group headed by two of Broadway's top people, Director Elia Kazan and producer Cheryl Crawford.

As we sipped our coffee, I asked Betty what difference success has made in her attitude toward her work. "It's wonderful," said Betty. "I used to have to spend all my time getting ahead. Now I find that I have much more time to devote to some of the things I have always wanted to study . . . music, art, psychiatry . . . and even cooking! Then, with a twinkle in her eye, Betty added, "I'd love to have you come for dinner some night." What could I do? My hand was forced to reach for the check.

S.F. As Insurance Capital Of West Featured In Magazine

San Francisco has been the insurance capital of the West for almost a hundred years.

This fact was recalled in an article by Thomas A. Brooks, chief administrative officer of the City and County of San Francisco and chairman of the Regional Service committee, in the current issue of "California, Magazine of the Pacific," official publication of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

According to Brooks the insurance fraternity early made its home in the heart of the city's teeming financial district and there many millions of dollars of insurance is written each year.

The article describes the City's "Insurance Street," as it is called, the most compact of any in the United States, and relates some of the outstanding instances of insurance coverage and payments of claims made by the 164 companies which make San Francisco their headquarters.

Take It Easy Over July 4th Holiday Season

We can make our July effort pay big dividends in lives saved by getting off on the right foot during the Fourth of July holiday says the San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission. Then if we can keep up the good work throughout the vacation season of heavy travel, we can make a big dent in this year's traffic toll.

These tips are offered to holiday drivers: Start your trip a little earlier so you won't be tempted to speed. Don't drink if you drive. Don't cut in and out in heavy traffic. Stay in line until passing is safe. Drive as if your life depended on it—because it does.

Electric Ray Now At S.F. Aquarium

A sea-going animal with voltage strong enough to knock a man flat on his face moved in among some of the more easy-going ocean creatures at Steinhart Aquarium in Golden Gate Park this week. It is a 20-pound Electric Ray.

Circular in shape and measuring over three feet from wing to wing the Ray is capable of discharging 250 volts of electric energy, according to Dr. Earl Herald, curator of aquatic biology for the California Academy of Sciences. "They are very easy to handle," Dr. Herald said, "if you pick them up by the tail. The electrically charged organs are located under each wing."

The Electric Ray is one of the few salt water animals in the world capable of discharging electric energy, Dr. Herald said. The electric mechanism is used both as a defense against larger animals and as a method of gathering food.

X-ray pictures to test metals can be taken at a speed of 100 per second.

Roses and Ruffles for the Pigtail Crowd

Even the youngest guest will be charmed into model behavior by a table setting where roses bloom on fine Lenox china and riot behind a white picket fence. Junior flatware and footed tumblers assist party manners.

WHAT small child, or grown-up for that matter, could fail to thrill at this dainty party setting? The airy grace of a white wrought iron glass top garden table is the background for novel place mats—pretty ruffles of pale blue organdy, just large enough to frame the flower-decorated Lenox Rose plates. For centerpiece, a plateau of Sweetheart roses surrounded by a wee picket fence is a child's dream garden come true. Mistress Mary figurines smile enchantingly on the garden and each little girl's place card is held by an adorable pigtailed Lenox figurine that might be a replica of her own self. Appropriate for the setting and adding comfort to the festivities are the short junior sized flatware and footed tumblers.

A prettily arranged table setting such as this will take the old familiar dread out of giving a children's party, for influenced by ruffles and roses, gleaming silver and fine translucent china, the most mischievous imp miraculously becomes a demure and proper little miss. Junior size flatware is a compliment small company will be quick to appreciate, while footed tumblers slim enough for little fingers to grasp firmly will prevent mishaps.

Don't tremble at the possible fate of your fine Lenox china on the children's party table, because actually fine china, with its superior materials and long firings, will take more knocks and hard wear than less costly dishes. Children, too, are wonderfully responsive to beauty, and more easily beguiled than beaten into good manners.

The surface of the Everglades is less than 20 feet above sea level.

REDWOOD CITY PROMISES BIG TIME LOTS OF FUN AT JULY 4TH PARADE

Largest number of participants in history is assured for Redwood City's annual Fourth of July parade, Chairman Floyd Granger reported today.

Granger pointed out that as of yesterday 363 musicians, 191 members of drill teams, and 35 entries including floats, novelty units, and other features, have been lined up for this year's event, slated for 11 a.m. in Redwood City.

Granger said that plans are being made to handle 30,000 spectators over the near one-mile course from Brewster and Arguello, where the units will begin their line of march.

The following route was listed for this year's record parade: Up Brewster to El Camino Real; south on El Camino to Broadway; east on Broadway to Main street; south on Main street to Middlefield road; north on Walnut, returning to Broadway and continuing to the reviewing stand located near the rodeo grounds.

The U.S.S. Colette will be berthed at the Redwood City Harbor during the three days celebration.

Granger stated that arrangements are being made to have the U.S. Army Air Force jet fighter planes fly over Redwood City during the time the parade is in progress.

Another feature will be the original stage coach which in former years made daily trips between Redwood City and La Honda and Pescadero. Residents of this area who used this mode of transportation in the old days will be passengers in the coach during the parade.

An outstanding entry is the 18-piece band accompanying the 36-man marching unit of the Electronics Material School of the 12th Naval District. The entire 149th AACFA Battalion of the California National Guard, composed of batteries in San Mateo county will also be a featured attraction.

Granger is sending out final instructions this week to all who have signified their intention of entering the parade. Additional entries scheduling their participation between now and July 1, will also be notified. Units to be assigned to specific locations in the line of march must notify the parade chariman not later than July 1. Entries received after that date will be made up in special divisions.

Distinguished guests who have signified their intention of attending, will report to the city hall, Redwood City, not later than 10 a.m. to Emmett Donnelly, chairman of this section of the program, who will arrange for their transportation in the line of march.

Deputy Sheriff Walter Moore will act as grand marshal of the parade, and will be accompanied by his aides.

Ben Kramer has been appointed chairman of the mounted units.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the parade by local groups, individuals, and organizations, and it is anticipated that this year's event will surpass all previous ones.

Behind the wheel, most drivers identify themselves with the speed and power of the car, but be careful not to misuse that speed and power. Remember that your car also has the power to kill!

Treats For Tiny Tots

"For The Home Cook"

Baby's very first food, and a basic food throughout life, is milk — "Nature's most nearly perfect food".

Not only is milk baby's first and most essential food, but it also plays an important part in introducing baby to more solid foods and to the use of a spoon. Served in the form of colorful, easy-to-digest rennet-custards, tots enjoy the variety of flavors and the smooth, cool texture — and soon discover it's fun to eat milk with a spoon. Busy mothers like it too; rennet-custards are so easy to prepare and so good for baby.

Why not treat your favorite tot today!

Rennet-Custards

Made with Rennet Powder
(for older infants)
1 cup milk (not canned)
2 tablespoons rennet powder
(vanilla or fruit flavors)

Set out 2 or 3 custard cups. Warm milk slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat. Stir rennet powder into milk quickly until dissolved — not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into individual dessert glasses. Do not move until set — about 10 minutes. Then chill in refrigerator. Serve with a topping of strained, chopped, or sliced fruit.

Navy Offers Job Opportunities For Local Young Men

The Navy is now offering a course of study for storekeepers and disbursing clerks to high school graduates who can qualify for this type of training. Many young men upon completion of high school are interested in following such lines of work as office managers, bookkeepers, cashiers, paymasters, business machine operators, expediters or one of the many other such jobs; if so they can receive schooling and practical experience in this type of work by enlisting and following this line of work in the Navy.

The Navy, one of the greatest technical organizations in the world, requiring many skilled technicians, also requires skilled storekeepers to handle the vast supply problem, and disbursing clerks to handle pay records and accountancy. Further information on this program may be obtained by phoning EMerson 8-1185, or visiting the Navy recruiting office located in the county courthouse, Redwood City.

HARD AND SOFT WATER

Your vacation journey by motor is likely to take you through territory that has a wide range of water, varying from the extremely hard to the extremely soft, points out the National Automobile Club. Hard water, it should be borne in mind, obtains its hardness from various deposits in it which are likely to leave a scale in the radiator and cooling system. If it is used excessively, have the system drained and flushed at the end of the trip.

SAFETY IN DELAY

The old saying, "there's danger in delay" can't be applied to modern traffic conditions, says the California State Automobile Association. There's safety in delay for the pedestrian who stops to look before stepping into a traffic lane.

Construction On New Roads Makes Driving Hazardous

Anticipating the heavy traffic on all San Mateo county roads during the July Fourth week end, the San Mateo County Traffic Safety Commission calls attention to the fact that a section of the La Honda road is being rebuilt at Woodruff Creek and running one mile toward La Honda. Canada road from Jefferson avenue to Woodside and the Coast highway from Montara south to Frenchman's Creek are both under construction.

These roads are passable and every affort has been made by the county engineer's department to provide safe passage. It will only be necessary for the traveling public to keep their cars under control at these construction points.

Veterans Weekly News Column

The Veterans Administration District 12 Insurance Service handles approximately 383,000 active National Service Life Insurance accounts for World War II veterans in California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii.

The vast majority of the premiums on these insurance policies are paid on a monthly basis. The checks and money orders handled by Insurance Service employees runs into millions of dollars each month.

In order to speed the handling and identification of these premiums, veterans are urged by VA to use official VA premium envelopes when paying National Service Life Insurance by mail.

The envelopes expedite handling of insurance premiums since full information necessary to process the payment is included by VA before the envelope is mailed to veteran policy holders.

Veterans who pay G-I insurance premiums by mail should make checks or money orders payable to the Treasurer of the United States.

If the official yellow VA premium notice envelopes are not used, veterans should give their full name, address, G-I insurance policy number, service serial number and any other information to aid VA in making proper identification.

Question: I have added total disability income coverage to my 20-payment National Service Life Insurance policy. Does the disability coverage continue after my policy is paid up?

Answer: Yes, provided you have not reached the age of 60. You continue to pay the additional premium for disability protection to the end of the 20-year period when it, too, becomes paid up. All disability income protection ceases when the insured reaches age 60, but payments are continued to those who are totally disabled at the time they reach 60.

Question: I converted my National Service Life Insurance to 20-payment life. Is it possible to convert this policy once again to a cheaper plan of insurance, such as ordinary life?

Answer: You may, provided you are able to pass a physical examination.

Question: I am the beneficiary of a $10,000 NSLI policy. Are the payments I am receiving subject to taxation?

Answer: No. The payments of National Service Life Insurance as such are wholly exempt from federal taxation.

Abandoned Wells Big Problem, Says As'mbly Committee

Abandoned wells such as the one in which little Kathy Fiscus tumbled to her death are a major menace to the underground water resources of the State as well as hazards of life and limb, the Assembly Interim Fact Finding Committee on Water Pollution declared in its recent report to the legislature.

The committee, headed by Assemblyman Randal F. Dickey of Alameda, said the problem of locating such wells and property capping or sealing them is one of the most difficult which it encountered in its two years of investigation of water pollution problems in California.

Press reports at the time of the Kathy Fiscus tragedy said the company which had that well on its records had been searching for the well for years without success.

Thousands of such wells exist in the State, the committee said, pointing out that through such wells contaminated surface water or water from a polluted strata can reach underground strata from which domestic water is being pumped. Illustrating the difficulty of dealing with the problem, the committee continued:

"Most of the wells are now owned by persons who did not construct them. Most often the present owner of the property either does not know of their existence or, if he does, he cannot afford to plug them properly. Some property on which abandoned wells are located is worth less than the cost of plugging them.

"It must be realized," the committee went on in its report, "that mere capping of a well to prevent physical injury is a simple matter compared with the expensive procedure of plugging an entire shaft with clay or other materials to prevent flow of water from one stratum to another or to exclude surface waters.

"As an illustration of this problem, there is the instance of the Livermore Valley where a number of oil or gas wells which were abandoned prior to the present efficient State control of such operations are now flowing highly polluted water (boron) into the local fresh water supply.

"Similar situations with respect to abandoned water wells exist in many areas and are said to be especially damaging in the Los Angeles Basin, on the west side of the San Joaquin Valley and in the Salinas Valley."

Temperatures which kill living cells are often only a few degrees above those at which they are accustomed to living.

The committee advocated a thorough study of the problem by the State Division of Water Resources as a prelude to recommendations to the legislature for methods of dealing with the problem adequately and equitably.

The committee also recommended a new approach to the whole problem of water pollution control in California, substituting for the present "ineffective" control methods a system of nine regional water pollution control boards and one State board, with emphasis on cooperative action.

SEVENTEEN BOYS AND GIRLS INITIATE SUMMER CIRCULATION CAMPAIGN

Seventeen youthful salesmen and saleswomen started on their summer jobs this week — selling subscriptions to the Daly City Record. This marks the beginning of the Record's summer circulation drive.

Ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, the boys and girls are gaining valuable experience in meeting people and handling money.

They are out on a house-to-house drive, offering residents here the Daly City Record for only $3 a year.

In return for this small investment — averaging less than a penny a day — subscribers are enabled to keep in touch with all important local news, much of which is of vital importance to each of them.

Following are the names of the Record's new junior salesmen and saleswomen:

SPEED IS KILLER

Nearly one-third of all motorists involved in fatal traffic accidents last year were guilty of driving too fast for existing conditions. Many such tragedies might have been averted had the victims regulated their speed to conform with weather, road and other traffic conditions, points out the California State Automobile Association. Violations of common sense may be as dangerous as violations of traffic laws.

The first county seat of Yolo county, Fremont, was made a ghost town by a change in the course of the Sacramento River.

KNOT BAD—Tidily tied at the side, this two-piece swim suit was designed by veteran NEA-Acme photographer Mike Ackerman, whose job it is to patrol Miami in search of beauty on the beach. He's come up with a real find in Dottie Sykes, who's modeling his Seminole-print creation.

"Part-Time Soldiers" Draw Retirement Pay

San Mateo county's 225 part-time soldiers are helping themselves to a slice of Uncle Sam's retirement benefits. This means that at 60 years of age a diligent National Guardsman can retire on from $50 to $200 per month without contributing more than his spare time.

It all started last June, when Congress passed Public Law 810. This provided that active reservists may retire on a percentage of their pay when they reach 60, providing they serve at least 20 years. To qualify, most reservists need only attend weekly drills of their National Guard units.

Veterans are entitled to additional credit toward retirement pay under the new bill, based on their length of service.

The legislation also covers those who are no longer on the active lists but who have had 20 years or more federally recognized service. These are urged to write Washington for further information.

The following National Guard units located on the peninsula are eligible for the pensions:

Hq. Btry., 149th AAA AW BN (SP), 420 Peninsular avenue, San Mateo.

A Btry., 149th AAA AW BN (SP), 1204 Middlefield road, Redwood City.

B Btry., 149th AAA AW BN (SP), Tanforan Naval Base, San Bruno.

C Btry., 149th AAA AW BN (SP), Tanforan Naval Base, San Bruno.

D Btry., 149th AAA AW BN (SP), Burgess Recreation Center, Menlo Park, located adjacent to Stanford Village.

The weekly drill of these National Guard units is held on Monday evenings.

On July 16 and 17 these units will practice firing small arms at Ft. Barry in Marin county to qualify as Marksmen and Sharpshooters, and on July 31 the National Guard units will depart for Camp San Luis Obispo, California, for their annual 15-day summer training. During the week-end firing and the 15-day summer training, National Guardsmen receive full pay and allowances.

Information regarding enlistment can be obtained during the day between the hours from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the National Guard Armory located at 420 Peninsular avenue, San Mateo, or on Monday evenings between 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. at any peninsula unit.

General Butler Lauds Peninsula Army Reserve

Satisfaction with the status of training of North Penisula Army Reserve units stationed in San Bruno was expressed this week by Brigadier General Frederic B. Butler, Northern California Reserve chief, after an inspection visit to the nine units.

General Butler is commanding general of the Northern California-Nevada Organized Reserve Corps Instructor Group, with headquarters in the Presidio of San Francisco. He visited the training outfits June 22 in their quarters at the U.S. Naval Station opposite Tanforan.

Colonel Joseph F. Cole of Millbrae, commander of the 6639th AAA Training Brigade which supervises the San Bruno training, has urged all Peninsula reserve officers interested in the program to contact his headquarters in Building E-101 of the Naval Station. There are vacancies in all branches of the service, he said.

1 baked 8-inch pie shell
Few drops vanilla
½ cup cream, whipped and sweetened

HOLIDAY TRAFFIC TOLL

America's traffic accident toll usually suffers an upsurge on holiday week ends, warns the National Automobile Club. On this coming July Fourth week end, do your part to keep this upsurge down by driving with extra caution and showing extra courtesy to your fellow drivers on the road.

DON'T OVER-FILL

Excessive oil consumption is often the result of filling the car's crankcase above the recommended level, according to the California State Automobile Association. Oil should not be added to the crankcase until one quart is required to restore the level to the "full" mark on the measuring stick.

Governor Warren Gives Reasons For Not Calling Special Election On Prop. No. 4

Governor Warren has announced that he will not call a special election on the initiative measure seeking the repeal of Proposition No. 4, the old age pension measure adopted by the voters last November.

The Governor's announcement means that the repeal initiative will appear on the November, 1950, general election ballot unless action is taken by the legislature to set an earlier election date.

In a statement announcing his action, the Governor said:

"I shall not call a special election for the repeal of Proposition Number 4. My reasons are as follows:

"Proposition No. 4, adopted at the general election last November was a constitutional amendment initiated by the people. Prior to the election the Department of Social Welfare and the Department of Finance, informed the public what changes would be made by the proposal in the administration of public assistance to the aged and the blind as well as the additional expense that would be occasioned by the increased payments and expanded provisions.

"With these facts before them, a majority of those voting at the election approved the measure. Shortly thereafter and before any administrative experience was had under the new amendment, petitions for its repeal were circulated and according to the decision of the Supreme Court recently, the proposal qualified for submission to the voters. It must now be placed on the ballot by the Secretary of State at the next general election or at an election to be called by the Governor expressly for that purpose at an earlier date.

"The question of which procedure should be followed involves the basic relationship between the office of Governor and the legislative process of the State because it must be remembered that the Legislature has been in session during all of the proceedings subsequent to the election.

"When in session the Legislature represents the supreme legislative power of the State. Subject only to the referendum, it makes the laws of our State and initiates changes in the Constitution by submitting amendments to the people for ratification. Where it is contented with existing provisions, it leaves them intact.

"To apply this reasoning to Proposition No. 4, if the Legislature desired to submit a Constitutional Amendment concerning it, it could do so. If it decides not to do so, the Governor should take that fact into consideration in determining whether an election should be specially called. To do otherwise would ignore the comity that should exist between the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the government.

"The right of the people to initiate changes in the Constitution by petition is ancillary to the powers of the Legislature, whenever the petitioners are dissatisfied with the existing Constitution or laws of the State. They have the right to express themselves at the general election following the qualifying of their proposal or sooner if the Governor determines that the facts justify an earlier referral to the people. In the absence of any action by the Legislature seeking such a constitutional change, I find no justficiation for my calling a special election for the repeal of Proposition Number Four.

"I am happy that the Supreme Court has decided this matter so expeditiously because it leaves me free to make this decision known while the Legislature is still in session and in a position to take any action it considers proper under existing circumstances."

July 3 Red Letter Day For S.F. Trolley Riders

Sunday, July 3, will be a red letter day for San Francisco's trolley riders.

On that date the Municipal Railway will switch from gasoline buses and street cars all service on the 8, Castor street; 5, McAllister; 6, Haight, and 7, Hayes; and 21 lines, to new, fast trackless trolley coaches.

Overhead installation has been completed throughout the areas served by these lines, including Market street.

Pac. Tel. & Tel. Co. Announces Major Personnel Changes

Major organization changes were announced recently by The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to become effective on July 1.

Local interest attaches particularly to appointment of Roy N. Buell as division manager in San Francisco, succeeding Lyle M. Brown, who has held the post since 1926. Mr. Brown will become assistant to the vice president and general manager for northern California and Nevada, until November 30, 1949, when he will retire in accordance with the company's retirement plan.

George H. Jess was named executive assistant to the president from his present post as operating vice president. Mr. Jess will continue to serve as a director of the company.

Richard E. Hambrook will become operating vice president, and Glen Ireland takes over as vice president and general manager for northern California and Nevada. W. G. Chaffee will succeed Mr. Ireland as vice president in charge of rate and regulatory matters. John M. Black will shift to vice president in charge of personnel matters, from his former post as vice president and general manager for northern California and Nevada.

Other appointments include those of Stanley L. King, general traffic manager; E. D. Maloney, general commercial manager; E. N. Hicks, secretary of the employees' benefit fund committee, succeeding Roy Buell, and John E. Acevedo, auditor of the Oregon Area.
